

Ready Set Go

BRAINLESS TALES.com

Making Text Connections
By Mona Khattak

Types of Connections

|   |  |
|---|--|
| Text-to-Self (T-S)    | Text - to Text (T-T)  |
| Text-to-World (T-W)  |  |

Draw It

Circle the picture that shows a text to self connection.

COMPREHENSION

Making Connections

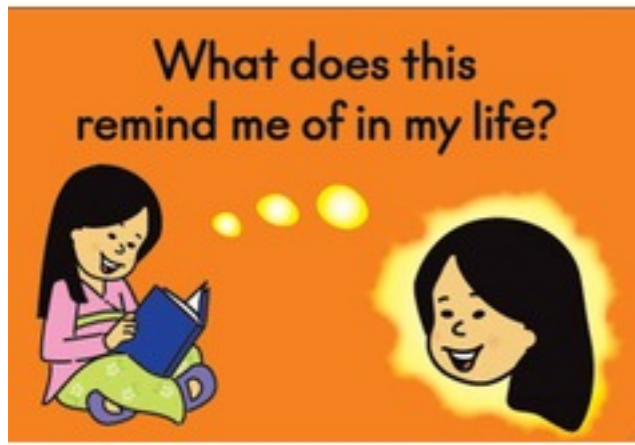

⇒ The reader just made connection with the story.

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/I7MJNVuwZYs>

Open Ended Question

List two examples of text to self connections given in the video

WELL DONE!

DUNE

Characters use
'ice' to

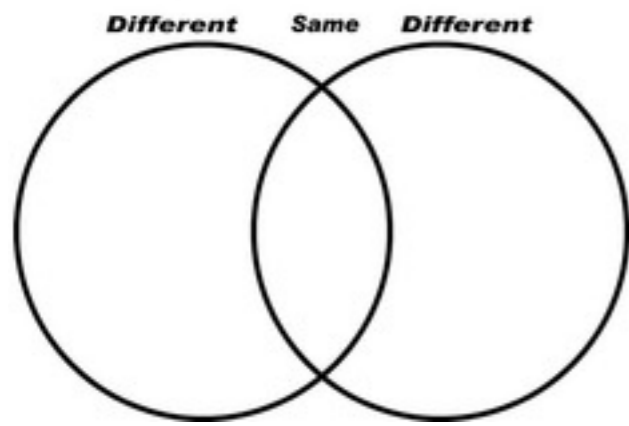

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/O95uVRDALQI>

Quiz

Text to text connection is when you relate something you read to:

- something in your life
- something else you have read
- something in the world

VENN DIAGRAM

Venn diagrams help in

- comparing and contrasting
- writing about the plot of a story
- describing the theme of a story

Text to text connections can also be about how two texts made you feel?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/bUeHGhwHRlg>

Fill in the Blanks

events

history

community

world

A text to world connection is when you are relating what you are reading to the _____ around you. Sometimes, what you are reading might remind you of something that happened in _____ or current _____ and issues around the world. Sometimes text to text connections can be about what you see happening in your own _____ or country.

That's all Folks!